LIONEL RICHIE

“ALL THE HITS ALL NIGHT LONG”

2015 EUROPEAN TOUR

Saturday 21st March 2015 | 8:30 pm | Sporting Monte-Carlo

Lionel Richie will make a stop in Monaco during his “All the Hits All Night Long” 2015 European Tour, on Saturday 21st March 2015, for what will be his only South of France date.

Since his massive “Tuskegee Tour” in 2012 delighted audiences across Europe, today the multi-platinum selling artist Lionel Richie announced he is set to return for a 31-date tour that will see him perform in 12 different countries early next year.

The five-time Grammy winner and international superstar launched his current tour in the US in September 2013. Since then he has played an incredible 70 shows in stadiums, arenas and festivals across North America, Oceania and Asia winning rave reviews everywhere he goes.

Speaking about bringing his tour to Europe Lionel said: “I can’t wait to get back to the Sporting Monte-Carlo. The audiences are always so great and I always have an incredible time when I’m in Monaco. The show feels like a great big sing-along most nights so I’m looking forward to singing along with the people of the Sporting Monte-Carlo again!”

Lionel’s shows feature songs from one of the most loved repertoires in music spanning his entire career from the Commodores through to the present day. The tour has received incredible reactions from fans all over the world. Lionel’s performances have become renowned for being much more than just a concert – reviewers around the world have commented on the unique party atmosphere he creates as he unites the audience with songs like Dancing On The Ceiling, Say You, Say Me, Hello, Three Times A Lady, Easy and All Night Long. The show really does deliver on its promise of ALL THE HITS ALL NIGHT LONG.

The tour is a celebration of Lionel's incredible career. He has sold over 100 million albums worldwide whilst receiving prestigious awards along the way including Grammys, American Music Awards, a Golden Globe and even an Oscar.
