

In 2015, the festive season will be starting Saturday 5 December!

A month of magic in the winter warmth of Monte-Carlo.

True to its tradition of enchanting both young and adults alike, Monte Carlo Société des Bains de Mer will be starting Christmas on 5 December. Place du Casino, Allée François Blanc, Avenue de Monte-Carlo, Square Beaumarchais, Allée des Pavillons, the hotels and palaces, restaurants and casinos, will be places of wonder and excitement.

The shopping experience and the art of living in Monte Carlo are exceptional. To find unique and original gifts, take a walk beneath the blue skies of Monte Carlo, through the alleyways lined with snow-covered pines, magnificent lights and the window displays of the most prestigious names in fashion. In the Pavillons, the Café Promenade offers a delicious treat of pain d'épice, chocolates, mendiants and other Christmas confectioneries that can be enjoyed with a mulled wine, a traditional-style hot chocolate, or a glass of champagne.

In Monaco, it all starts with a magical spectacle.

As night falls on Saturday 5 December, the 'Lighting Ceremony' will unveil the illuminations. The homage to the 'Year of Russia in Monaco' will end in a cascade of lights on the festive Christmas decorations of white, red and gold.

For Thursday 24 and Friday 25 December, the Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer establishments will be welcoming friends and families for a cosy and festive Christmas. The very epitome of this everlasting magic, of tradition and of luxury, the Hôtel Hermitage is offering packages for a warm and cosy Christmas, be it over a Christmas high tea, a creative workshop, or Christmas Eve in its sumptuous Salle Belle Epoque.

The Hôtel Hermitage will be the perfect emblem of Christmas magic with its magnificent children's carousel.

On Thursday 31 December, the final hours will be counted down amid much excitement as we welcome in the New Year. Dinners, shows and electrifying decorations will be on the programme. To make the event even more special, all the prestigious venues will be transformed: the Salle des Etoiles at Sporting de Monte-Carlo with the show “Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons”, an international pop group from the 60s, the Salle Empire at Hôtel de Paris, La Brasserie at Café de Paris, the Salle Belle Epoque at Hôtel Hermitage, Le Blue Bay at Monte-Carlo Bay Hotel & Resort, the Buddha Bar, the casinos, and of course, Jimmy’z to start the year off in festive style.

Starting at 11 p.m., Alessandro Ristori and the Portofinos will be performing at Place du Casino before chinking champagne glasses to bring in the New Year under the silver lights of the cold fireworks display.

Two- to four-night stays at the Monte-Carlo Bay Hotel & Resort from €1,260 including New Year's Eve.
