ROBBIE WILLIAMS in concert

Saturday 31st May 2014 | 20h30 | Sporting Monte-Carlo

As part of his European tour "Swings Both Ways Live", Robbie Williams will be performing in Monaco on Saturday 31st May 2014, for a unique concert. The Salle des Etoiles, in a new seated concert setting, will be filled with the live music and unique sounds of his new album: "Swing Both Ways".

This new record features a mix of classic covers such as "Dream A Little Dream", and new material, as well as duets with some of pop's biggest names, including Lily Allen, Michael Bublé, Kelly Clarkson, Olly Murs and Rufus Wainwright.

It has also seen Robbie reunite with Guy Chambers, with whom he wrote 6 new songs, the latter having realized the album as well.

Robbie recently explained his motivation behind the album, saying:
"I wanted to do a swing album simply because it was a personal long-time wish.
I always knew I'd do another and I think now is the perfect time to do it.
All this show business amuses me, I'm in love with life, what I retain from my experience and my career, is this ceaseless need to create a real sensation every time I make an album.
This time, it is an ode and a love move towards a time which I did not know, for not having grown up in it...
I would so much have wanted to be there, it is a feeling always present in me."

He concludes by saying: "Hopefully I'm off to romance the world."

This tour will be a great chance for his public to rediscover this amazing artist!
The Sporting Monte-Carlo is the perfect place for this event.
