La Vigie reinvents itself as a natural showcase perched above the sea

Located in an exceptional setting between the sea and the pine forest, overlooking the bay of Monte-Carlo Beach, La Vigie Lounge & Restaurant launches a 2019 summer season under the sign of an exotic escapade in a new, natural environment. Nestled in the heart of a bamboo forest, in a wooded and planted décor with refined exoticism, the new Vigie offers a revised menu based around healthy Mediterranean cuisine made for sharing.

A new Vigie with soft colours and a Bohemian accent

To celebrate the summer, what could be more idyllic than finding yourself in a cosy and intimate atmosphere in a natural environment? An address that is well-known for its exceptional location offering one of the most beautiful views of the Mediterranean, La Vigie Lounge & Restaurant has been given a natural makeover to create a place filled with charming and original vegetation. Bamboo reigns in this new setting: no fewer than 7 species of bamboo from the Bambouseraie en Cevennes in the South of France, the European leader in growing bamboo with 15,000 m<sup>2</sup> of plant species, serve to create an extraordinary garden and the furniture was designed exclusively for the location by Green & Mingarelli Design. Bamboo also decorates the kitchen, the bar and the pergola, enhanced with furniture made from natural materials and soft colours to create an atmosphere conducive to escape and disconnection. For lunch with a Bohemian touch, a replenishing break after a treatment or a yoga session at the Tigre Monte-Carlo, an enchanting sunset for two or with friends or a dinner under the stars on a sweet summer evening, La Vigie Lounge & Restaurant offers an experience that is both refined and authentic.

A generous and delicious menu

Throughout the day and until sunset, the senses are awakened by the catchy beats of the resident DJ for time spent with friends around delicious shared platters, accompanied by a signature cocktail or a fine wine. From 8pm, those who enjoy dinner under the stars accompanied by the gentle lapping of the sea will rediscover the eternal ambiance of La Vigie in a plant décor that is even more magical after nightfalls.

"La Vigie is a timeless Monaco address that succeeds in surprising and delighting its guests! We wanted a place that was even more connected to the elements, while enjoying total refinement from the décor to the plate," remarks Danièle Garcelon, Director of the Monte-Carlo Beach.

"Consistently responding to the desires of our customers who travel the world in search of increasingly incredible experiences is part of the DNA of Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer. Tina Green as Creative Director and Pietro Mingarelli for technical realisation combined their talents to create an innovative concept," adds Samy Sass, who piloted the project.
