General Manager of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, Ivan Artolli, awarded Leading Legend prize at Leading Hotels of the World conference 2022

30th November 2022...// Ivan Artolli, General Manager of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo and member of the European Hotel Manager Association (EHMA) since 2002, was celebrated as Leading Legend 2022 at Leading Hotels of the World's annual conference in Mexico. Artolli was recognised for his unwavering leadership and passion for excellence in the luxury hospitality space over his 35 year career.

This award cements Artolli's reputation in the luxury hotel sector, leading by example and always managing to translate guests' dreams into reality at every touch point of the customer journey. His work has allowed guests to have a truly memorable experience at the hotel and the wider Principality.

Mr Artolli says, "From the early days of my career, I've come to realise that working in the luxury hospitality sector requires bravery, determination, passion, kindness, intellectual curiosity and above all hard work. I was humbled, honoured, and privileged to be awarded the "Leading Legend 2022 Award", a once in a lifetime achievement which has previously been awarded to remarkable hospitality professionals who manage and/or own independent luxury hotels".

This year LHW brought together directors and owners of 400 luxury independent hotels and top industry leaders to engage in thought-provoking discussions about the future of luxury hospitality and innovation.
