

PRESS RELEASE

Monaco, June 16th 2023

"Celebrate Life"
Opening of Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo

Since 7 June, an air of celebration has been blowing over Pointe de la Vigie, at the heat of Monte-Carlo Beach. The much-awaited Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo has just opened its season. A new festive and exclusive club to discover until 3 September. In the spirit of a day club, the bungalows hidden amongst the pine trees are now "Love Nests", the site is buzzing with a musical programme hosted by a resident DJ, a creative cocktail bar and, at the helm of the restaurant, the two-Michelin-star chef, Marcel Ravin, delivers a menu with a holiday taste. In 2023, Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer is reinventing the art of partying and celebration. See you at Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo.

A festive, but also cosy atmosphere at Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo

At the heart of Monte-Carlo Beach, in a lush setting on the sea, Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo opened on Wednesday 7 June on Pointe de la Vigie. This little paradise where life and summer are celebrated is rediscovering its original DNA to become the essential venue for festive afternoons and sunsets on the Riviera.

From 12 noon until 8pm, the lounge part of the club with "sunbeds" will be the ideal place for lounging and relaxing to music. Resident DJ, Supa Ju, and her vibrant House and Deep House set will liven up summer afternoons, along with guest DJs from Thursday to Sunday, such as Sacha Muki, Siryll, Selim Sivade, Vall, Gioé and Sylvain Armand. The latter will be in charge of the "Décadanse" concept in homage to the song by Serge Gainsbourg in 1971.

Club La Vigie is also unveiling the best-kept secret in Monte-Carlo Beach since 1952: its bungalows nestled in the rock and pine forest, renamed "Love Nests", for cosy moments with loved ones or friends. These idyllic cliff side refuges, which can accommodate 4 to 6 people, offer an exceptional view of the Mediterranean and the Bay of Monaco, as well as the restaurant menu by Marcel Ravin, available all day in a protected and authentic setting. The Love Nests can be privatised for the day.

The food offer at Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo by Marcel Ravin

To complete the festive experience and delight the heart and taste buds of its guests, Le Club La Vigie Monte-Carlo caters for 130 people in continuous service from 12 noon until 6pm in the Lounge and restaurant, with a summer menu signed by two-star-awarded chef, Marcel Ravin. The lively and generous cuisine is coloured with summer flavours, with a decidedly creative and upmarket, yet relaxed touch, with fresh and Mediterranean dishes to share. In keeping with the principle dear to Marcel Ravin, the products have a strong local emphasis, with seasonal fruits and vegetables.

The menu includes finger food with a summer vibe, such as the typical dish of the Riviera "la bagna caude", or "olive and lobster salad". Dishes to share inspired by a variety of influences will fit perfectly into this setting, offering guests a lively and generous cuisine. A seafood fish tank is also proposed with fresh lobsters and fish of the day caught locally.

"We worked with the teams of Monte-Carlo Beach, Pascal Garrigues and Julien Vadrot on a plural, non-personal identity. My idea for this place was to be able to receive customers as if welcoming them into your home, with friends, to come and share a moment around the table, either standing up or comfortably seated in the "sunbeds", and for each person to experience this freedom and lightness: to dance, sing, soak up this holiday atmosphere! "

In terms of design, the Bohemian-inspired décor with contemporary lines and the sea as far as the eye can see has been magnified by one of the references in the interior design of clubs and festive restaurants, from Saint-Barth to Miami, including Courcheval: Samy Chams. A radiant universe where yellow pays homage to the sun and the colours of Monte-Carlo Beach, in a cool and refined dolce vita feel.

Little extra: this day club, hidden from view, is easily accessed from the sea thanks to a private jetty for boats visiting the coast. There is also a shuttle to easily reach Maona Monte-Carlo to continue the evening under the stars. Ideal for customers on the move looking for new and exclusive events for the summer season.
