COYA Monte-Carlo returns for the Riviera season

Press Release - Monaco, 12 March 2026 – From April 1st to October 24th, 2026, COYA Monte-Carlo returns to the Riviera for a new season, in the heart of Sporting Monte-Carlo. Refined South American-inspired dining, world-class mixology, internationally renowned musical programming, and breathtaking views over the Mediterranean: since 2018, COYA Monte-Carlo has established itself as one of the Riviera's defining destinations for summer nights.

A Refined Culinary Direction

The 2026 season unveils a refreshed menu aligned with COYA's ever-evolving culinary identity: sophisticated South American cuisine in harmony with Mediterranean flavors and seasonal ingredients. Signature dishes make their grand return, enhanced with a new touch of freshness and balance. Highlights include traditional Empanadas and Chilean sea bass Cazuela, alongside lighter sharing plates inspired by the Peruvian coast and the Riviera. These dinners are designed to be savoured during long summer evenings before transitioning seamlessly into COYA's late-night rhythm.

Madre Tierra: COYA's new global bar menu

The launch of Madre Tierra, COYA's new international bar menu, will be one of the season's highlights starting April 1st. Inspired by the landscapes of Peru—from La Costa to La Sierra and La Selva—this collection offers a true journey through carefully crafted cocktails that showcase narrative mixology. Expect bold flavors, refined technique, and a balance between international signatures and original local creations, including sophisticated non-alcoholic cocktails.

COYA Monte-Carlo will also feature the brand's exclusive global collaboration with Tequila Barajas, an independent Mexican tequila house renowned for its artisanal production and highly appreciated by connoisseurs. This partnership includes hand-painted, individually numbered bottles reserved exclusively for COYA guests worldwide. Each bottle reflects COYA's commitment to craftsmanship, rarity, and cultural authenticity.

An exceptional 2026 line-up

Music remains central to the COYA experience, with a 2026 line-up spanning the full Riviera season from April through September. Francis Mercier will open the season on April 10, followed by Demaya on May 15, Alex Wann on June 26 for “La Noche Blanca”, Arkadyan on September 24, and Bob Sinclar on September 25. Two special “Inca Nights” will pay tribute to COYA’s heritage through immersive performances and carefully curated soundscapes.

COYA Monte-Carlo will collaborate with iconic Jimmy’z Monte-Carlo for five exclusive evenings throughout the season, extending the experience into Monaco’s late-night circuit.

One of the Most Beautiful Terraces Under the Stars

From June, COYA Monte-Carlo will once again unveil its seasonal terrace installation in collaboration with APM Monaco, in partnership with Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer. The installation will further reinforce the Riviera glamour and contemporary elegance that define COYA Monte-Carlo.

Private Entertaining on the Riviera

Reimagined for the 2026 season, COYA Monte-Carlo’s private spaces offer a discreet yet dynamic setting with Mediterranean views. Semi-private and fully private configurations, adaptable to all needs, provide a refined and elegant backdrop for business meetings, brand launches, or bespoke events. From personalized tasting menus and dedicated mixology experiences to carefully curated DJ programming, each event is designed as an immersive COYA experience—combining exclusivity and atmosphere in one of Monaco’s most sought-after waterfront locations.
