

Rock, pop & French and Italian chanson: New Moods unveils its 2026/2027 lineup

Press Release - Monaco, 7 September 2026 – From 1 October, New Moods will reopen for its third season, with tribute bands bringing back the greatest hits of rock, pop, and French and Italian popular music through to 27 March, including songs by Ed Sheeran, Madonna, Céline Dion, Johnny Hallyday, Eros Ramazzotti and Queen. Two years after its revival, initiated by Stéphane Valeri, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer, this intimate concert venue, directed by Stéphane Lobono, has definitively found its audience and is offering an increasingly eclectic programme, carefully curated by Alfonso Ciulla, the Group's Artistic Director. Meanwhile, Victor Marion, head chef at Café de Paris Monte-Carlo, has devised a new menu, once again centred on sharing and indulgence.

Since its revival in 2024, spearheaded by Stéphane Valeri, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Monte-Carlo Société des Bains de Mer, New Moods has become the go-to destination for late-season celebrations on the Place du Casino, from Thursday to Saturday evening. The finest tribute bands will take to the stage in succession, bringing Monte-Carlo's autumn and winter evenings to life. Not forgetting the talents of the local music scene, with the MC Talents evening and a performance by Monaco rock band Rabata Roca.
